ATHENS. A CITY OF ORIGINS.

Dear Guests, welcome to The Queen Suites!

You are staying on the upper floor of a historic neoclassical building, officially designated as a Monument and Work of Art by the Greek Ministry of Culture in 1975. Built in 1912, this home once belonged to the world-renowned Greek actress Irene Papas — famously known as Marlon Brando's great love.

Step outside, wander and immerse yourselves in the charm and magic of Athens' Historic Center!

Here, in the 5th century BC, during the Golden Age of Pericles, Democracy was born. Socrates and Plato shaped philosophy, Sophocles gave voice to tragedy, Aristophanes to comedy.

SIGHTSEEING

Walking Through Layers of Time

As you walk through this city, you move through layers of time.

Acropolis & Parthenon

Within minutes on foot:

- Acropolis Museum — 7 min · Acropolis & Parthenon — 12 min
- Ancient Agora, Pnyx & Areopagus — 12 min
- Hadrian's Arch — 8 min · Stoa of Attalus
- Theatre of Dionysus & Odeon of Herodes Atticus
- National Garden & Zappeion

From the two master bedrooms, enjoy direct views of the Parthenon as the city wakes.

WANDERING PLAKA

Plaka remains one of the most elegant and timeless neighborhoods of Athens. Follow the light through narrow streets.

Its streets unfold: Monument of Lysicrates, Roman Agora, Tower of the Winds, Hadrian's Library.

Cine Paris — 4 min, world's best open-air cinema (Time Out).

ANAFIOTIKA

A Cycladic Island Within the City

Just above Plaka lies Anafiotika — a small historic neighborhood untouched by time. Named after stonemasons from Anafi island (1830s).

Metro

Syntagma — 7 min
Monastiraki — 8 min

Shopping

Ermou Street — 2 min
